Jorge Vega, Technology/Marketing Committee

Jorge is a K-12 educator and technology director who has supported the efforts of school districts and communities for the last twenty four years. He is committed to innovative and sustainable solutions that will allow the AHDI promise to take root and flourish.