

Ismail Mohammed

Ismail Mohammed is excited and proud to be a member of AHDI Promise. He was born in Ethiopia and is of Somali descent. He along with his parents and four siblings emigrated to the United States, settling in Long Island, New York. Ismail is a practicing attorney with a passion for immigration and criminal defense law. As an immigrant himself, he has a keen understanding and empathy for his clients. He draws upon his experience in ensuring that his clients know they have someone who understands their journey. He is also a father of an eleven year old daughter. Together, they enjoy playing basketball, reading, hiking and bike riding.
