

Carolyn Greenspon, Co-Chair

Carolyn met Mohamed and his family when their oldest children began Pre-K at The Park School. They soon found out that they share a passion around seeking educational and emotional resources for children and families. Carolyn spent many years working in clinical and management positions at McLean Psychiatric Hospital and in the local community. She now works with family businesses. Carolyn has served on both private and public boards and brings that experience with her to AHDI.